President's Message

A very happy, productive and peaceful 2015 and hope it's a good one for you and yours.

The Society started the year with the annual picnic at Wentworth Falls and a life drawing workshop at Mt Victoria with David Newman White. Both were well supported and I think, enjoyed by all who attended. We will be planning this year's activities at our next and future Management / exhibition committee meetings which brings us to membership of future committees.

It is good and healthy for the Society and its ongoing development and success to get now ideas and dare I say new blood metaphorically speaking. While it is to be encouraged to nominate for any of the positions prior to our AGM in March that does not mean that we cannot all benefit from ideas, suggestions and criticisms at any time. We will keep the suggestion box at future meetings but every newsletter contains contact details for committee members and you are welcome to contact them with your views.

Because our March meeting is focussed on the AGM there will be no formal demonstration but don't forget to bring a painting for members' choice. The selected work will be the major raffle prize at our Autumn exhibition and the work suggested will win the artist $100. This will defray any framing costs and perhaps even stretch to a box of chocolates?

Plein air this month is to Everglades garden in Leura, please wear your name badge and you can get free entry!
